

THE FIRST INFORMATION LETTER

Youth Club “Social Diplomacy” (Russia, Rostov-on-Don) jointly with ANO “Center of social-political research ‘Premier’” (Russia, Krasnodar) announce the best scientific papers contest with a further symposium forming and publishing on the subject:
“THE BLACK SEA COOPERATION: MODERN ASPECTS OF DEVELOPMENT”

The Black Sea basin includes 12 different countries, this region is 4.7% of the global world space, it is 19.1 million square kilometers. Here live 322.9 million people.

We accept articles from young experts (20-35 years), researchers, students, NGOs and etc. who are interested in this subject and in the Black Sea cooperation.

Participation is free.

The best papers on aspects and the main factors affecting the Black Sea development symposium are planning to be published. The brochure will have all the details necessary for the official scientific publication (e.g. ISBN).

Work directions:

- ➔ The geopolitical factors in the context of the Black Sea region of the world cooperation;
- ➔ Russia in the context of the regional development;
- ➔ Strategic goals and objectives of the Black Sea region;
- ➔ The main socio-political factors of this region;
- ➔ Economic cooperation indicators in the space of the Black Sea region;
- ➔ Prospects and problems of the Black Sea regional multilateral cooperation;
- ➔ Ethnocultural and ethno-political problems of this region;
- ➔ Regional Security issues in the Black Sea;
- ➔ Non-governmental sector in this region;
- ➔ The youth policy of the Black Sea;
- ➔ Features of intercultural communication in the region.

Objective: to identify the major problem spots in the relationship of this macro-region and create the necessary direction for a further work to involve young experts in the Black Sea region communication space.

The second information letter will be sent only to registered participants in the scientific papers contest.

We kindly ask you to share this information among your colleagues.
